THE PRESCOTT EXCURSION

And the Pleasant Side Trips in Many Directions.

Prescott, Arizona, Monday, August . 1905 .- (Special Correspondence to he Arizona Republican.-The special excursion train arranged by Superintendent Jones as a three-days' outing for residents of the Salt River Valley arrived in Prescott at 11 Saturday evening, carrying well-filled coaches and bearing about 00 souls who were anxious for a breath of good, cool mountain air. Nearly 400 tickets were sold to Phoeilx, and the towns on route used about another 100. The sleeping acommodations upon arrival were necessarily taxed, but by the aid of local ommittees every one was soon proided for. No unpleasant circumtances marred the run from Phoenix, and the two excursions of yesterday rere equally successful. The special excursion for Crown King left the depot at 7:30 yesterday norning and carried three well-filled coaches of Phoenix and Prescott people to enjoy the trip to that marvel of conders known as the Yager switchack of the Bradshaw mountain diision of the S. F., P. & P. Ry.

The train arrived at Crown King at 2 o'clock noon and the entire route isplayed a continuous panorama of countain scenery.

The ascent up the nine switchbacks was watched intently by all on he train and was highly spoken of as ### a splendid piece of railway engineering, which a few years ago would have been pronounced an impossible feat.

Three hours were spent in and around the Crown King mining plants, and picnic groups, here and there, enjoyed a hearty lunch.

The return trip was started at 3 p m., arriving in Prescott at 7 o'clock. The general expressions of Phoenixites, as noted by your correspondent who accompanied this trip, were that they had already been wkell repaid for their trip from the valley to ride over this great switchback, and it might be noted as there are few such mountain railway climbs in the United States, it is something worth going a distance to

On the return from Crown King, and but two miles out, the party were treated to a mountain spectacular scene, that of viewing from a 6,000foot altitude, a rain storm accompanied by thunder and lightning in the valley below, followed by a beautiful rainbow, and that in turn by the shining of the sun upon the former scene

Among the valleyites who accompanled this excursion were: Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Tribolet, Mrs. Baxter and two nieces, the Misses Snyder, Dree, Crabb. J. A. Vinson, J. T. Bone, Deputy Sheriff Jno. Wright, S. J. Roach and family and M. J. Swartz of Alhambra. Mr. Hanna, formerly of Phoenix, but now of Prescott, C. R. Henshaw of Bisbee, formerly with George Buxton. J. W. Cramer, city ticket agent of the S. F. at Prescott, also Genl. Agent Goldsworthy of Phoenix, Mrs. M. E. Denney, Mrs. S. L. Last, Geo. Lee, Jno. Methyin, J. Haskins and Peter Mohn of Lee's camp at Prescott.

The Jerome excursion left Prescot at 8:30 in the morning, returning at 8 p. m., and carried about 175 people who enjoyed the trip to the great copper mine of the United Verde together They also relieve Dis- with the scenery en route of a circuittress from Dyspepsia, In- ous mountain route. Mr. Allen, who resides near Alhamora, on Grand tvenue, is among the valley visitors and is putting in his lime trying to recognize the many oldtime friends he used to know 30 years ago. While in conversation with your reporter today, Mr. Allen was tapped on the shoulder and addressed by Sheriff Lowry. Mr. Allen looked up and down the 6-foot official and remarked: "Your face looks familiar but you are too tall for me, don't you "Well," said the sheriff, "! knew you 30 years ago; my name is Of course Allen was much

Mr. Allen came to Prescott in 1863, nd for many years conducted a meat narket in a log building which was lestroyed by the Prescot fire. Its location was about where Smith's market now is near the B.-B. store on

Among the specialties of the Jerome excursion was the kindness of the United Verde Copper Company in opening up the mine to the visitors and allow them a trip down its immense properties in squads of small numbers and presenting each with a neat copper souvenir made up into pir trays and other useful articles.

The privilege of entering this, on of the greatest mines of the world s rarely extended to anyone, and was thus much appreciated by those fortunate visitors yesterday.
